

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Revelation Version

God endures long and is patient and kind.

God never is envious nor boils over with jealousy,

God is not boastful or vainglorious; God does not display Himself haughtily.

God is not conceited (arrogant and inflated with pride);

God is not rude (unmannerly) and does not act unbecomingly.

God (Jesus in us) does not insist on His own rights or His own way, for God is not self-seeking.

God is not touchy, fretful, or resentful. God takes no account of the evil done to Him

(God pays no attention to a suffered wrong.)

God does not rejoice at injustice and unrighteousness, but rejoices when right and truth prevail.

God bears up under anything and everything that comes.

God is ever ready to believe the best of every person, God's hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and God endures everything (without weakening).

God never fails (never fades out or becomes obsolete or comes to an end).
