

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Personal Version

I, [your name] endure long and am patient and kind.

I, [your name] never am envious nor boil over with jealousy,

I, [your name] am not boastful or vainglorious; I, [your name] do not display myself haughtily.

I, [your name] am not conceited (arrogant and inflated with pride);

I, [your name] am not rude (unmannerly) and do not act unbecomingly.

I, [your name] (Jesus in me) do not insist on my own rights or my own way, for I, [your name] am not self-seeking.

I, [your name] am not touchy, fretful, or resentful. I, [your name] take no account of the evil done to me (I, [your name] pay no attention to a suffered wrong.)

I, [your name] do not rejoice at injustice and unrighteousness, but rejoice when right and truth prevail.

I, [your name] bear up under anything and everything that comes.

I, [your name] am ever ready to believe the best of every person, my/[your name]'s hopes are fadeless under all circumstances, and I, [your name] endure everything (without weakening).

I, [your name] never fail (never fade out or become obsolete or come to an end).
